Traditional classic high school with specialization in biomedical classes, languages of communication, linguistics and legal-economic profile.
The classical high school is the guarantor of tradition to protect the ancient knowledge and in compliance with the new needs of the contemporary world. The course of the classical high school is aimed at the study of the classical civilization and the humanistic culture. It favors a literary, historical and philosophical formation suitable for understanding its role in the development of Western civilization and tradition and in the contemporary world under a symbolic, anthropological and value comparison profile. It favors the acquisition of the methods typical of classical and humanistic studies, within a cultural framework which, while also paying attention to the mathematical, physical and natural sciences, allows us to grasp the intersections between knowledge and develop a critical vision of reality. It guides the student to deepen and develop the knowledge and skills and to develop the necessary skills.
